

Hutchinson has immediate openings for residential Home Energy Auditors due to continued growth in the NJ market. We are a company that has provided best of class service and experience for our customers since 1948 by employing the most qualified individuals available. At Hutchinson, the Home Energy Auditor's role is to work with the customers to evaluate their home and provide recommendations & choices to meet their comfort, energy and safety needs.

If you want to be part of a team that prides itself on commitment to being leaders in their trade, have a desire to grow as a professional in a transforming industry and be appreciated for your excellence then forward your resume for immediate consideration.

Primary Duties:

Meet with customers to analyze and document the home, both written and photographic.

Perform inspection as well as a variety of safety tests including but not limited to blower door and combustion/draft testing.

Entering information into company software (Microsoft Excel).

Presenting of recommendations to customer.

Turn in reports in a timely manner and coordinate with sales department.

Other tasks as needed.

Qualifications/Skills:

Must be able to work in confined spaces such as basements/attics/crawlspaces.

Excellent communication and writing skills.

Customer service/sales oriented attitude.

Knowledge of or ability to learn Microsoft Excel.

BPI training/ building analyst certification a plus.

Valid driver's license with a clean driving record.

Job Details:

Type: full time, must be able to work some nights and weekends.

Salary: 40-70k. Per audit base compensation + commission/SPIFF.

Includes: company vehicle, phone, computer & printer.

Benefits offered: medical, dental, vision, life, disability, 401k plan, holiday and vacation pay.

To apply, please visit our website www.Hutchbiz.com and select Careers then position.

EOE