

BPI Certified Building Analyst and Envelope Professional

Alber Service Company is South Jersey's Home Energy Performance Experts serving Camden, Burlington and Gloucester Counties for over 50 years. We are rapidly expanding and searching for the right BPI Certified Building Analyst/Envelope Professional with a combination of general HVAC knowledge and great sales skills.

Alber Service Company specializes in heating, cooling, water heating and insulation and is a leader in performing Home Energy Audits through New Jersey's Clean Energy Program.

Applicant will conduct in-home energy audits, generate audit reports, and present proposals with recommendations developed with our custom software

Commission can yield $80,000 to $120,000 annual potential

- Company supplied leads
- Paid mileage and expenses.
- Laptop and Sales materials provided
- Fully Paid Training and Certifications
- High Growth Opportunity with a Rapidly Expanding Company
- Flexible schedule, some Saturdays or evenings

Requirements & Skills:

- BPI certification and previous sales experience required
- Knowledge of HVAC desired but will train
- Basic skills in MS Office software, especially Excel, Word and Outlook
- Strong client management and follow-up skills
- Strong technical ability and organizational skills
- Reliable transportation, good driving record and drug-free

Email your resume in a Microsoft Word or PDF format to energyexpert@alberservice.com

Please visit our website <http://www.alberservice.com> for more information.