1. Introduction

Founded in 1993, the Building Performance Institute (BPI) is the nation's premier certification and standard-setting organization for home performance professionals. BPI is accredited by the American National Standards Institute, Inc. (ANSI) as a developer of American National Standards. BPI is also accredited as a certifying body for personnel credentials by the ANSI National Accreditation Board (ANAB). BPI develops the technical standards for home energy audits and for energy efficiency, health, and safety improvements. From these standards, BPI develops rigorous online and field exams resulting in one of BPI's 14 professional certifications. BPI understands the importance of impartiality in carrying out its certification activities, manages conflict of interest and ensures the objectivity of its certification activities.

BPI also offers 3 programs (BPI GoldStar Contractor for companies, Rating Program for raters, and BPI Product Listing for manufacturers) and 3 certificates (Building Science Principles, Healthy Housing Principles, and the Site Supervisor Certificate). BPI Certified Professionals hold over 15,000 active certifications supported by over 100 BPI Test Centers and 250 Proctors. BPI has BPI Goldstar Contractors across the country.

BPI is a 501(c)3 corporation registered in the state of New York. The corporation was incorporated on January 18, 1996, and the corporation number is 14-1789014. The objective of the corporation is to provide credentialing for individuals and corporations involved in the residential retrofit industry. BPI is headquartered in Saratoga Springs, NY.

The BPI Proctor Policies and Procedures for Core Certifications defines the criteria for approved proctors to properly administer and evaluate exam performance to BPI certification candidates. It also provides the guidelines to ensure that all certification sessions are conducted within the guidelines of the ANSI National Accreditation Board (ANAB) and the International Organization for Standardization (ISO) 17024.

The Test Center will be responsible for testing fees incurred and the proctor subject to disciplinary action as outlined in section 23 (Proctor Corrective Action) of this document. Proctors must attest that the site meets the minimum criteria for the exam on the appropriate field evaluation form.

This minimum test site criteria and process is to ensure that all candidates will have the same opportunity to prove knowledge in the same manner on all testable material.

- At minimum one atmospherically vented combustion appliance
- A test site capable of supporting blower door testing and diagnostics
- Must NOT be a potentially hazardous environment (including but not limited to asbestos – like material, mold and mildew in excess of 10 square feet of surface area, etc)
- A ducted distribution system (For Heating and A/C & Heat Pump only)

6.2 Proctor Assistants

Proctors may use an assistant during the exams. Please note on the field form that an assistant was present as well as on the video recording that an assistant is present. If a candidate is uncomfortable with the assistant at any time they must leave immediately.

Assistants for Core proctoring sessions:

- Must sign and submit to BPI a Non-Disclosure and Conflict of Interest Agreement (Appendix L) prior to the test session

If a candidate does not have access to testing equipment, the test center or proctor must ensure that the candidate has the appropriate testing equipment needed to complete an exam. The test center or proctor may, but is not required to, provide a candidate with testing equipment (with or without fee) or provide the candidate with rental options from third-party sources. If the appropriate equipment is not available to the candidate, the field exam will be postponed until the candidate can make arrangements to secure the proper equipment.

The test center or proctor will verify that equipment supplied is in good working order and all calibrations are up to date. All diagnostic testing required on a certification scheme must be completed with appropriate equipment on a functioning system (no simulation testing is permitted).

8. Security

Proctors have an important responsibility and must abide by stringent rules in order to maintain security of exam materials and ensure that exam conditions correlate with BPI's requirements.

The proctor will not copy, duplicate, photograph, reproduce, or otherwise capture any exam content.

9. Exam Recording Requirements

All candidate exam sessions must be audio and video recorded. No exceptions. If a candidate declines, the exam cannot take place. If the exam proceeds unrecorded, it will be invalidated.

Video media will be allowed to be retained by BPI Test Centers unless it falls under the category of required and/or requested submission to BPI. Original exam video must be maintained for a six month period.

If a candidate appeals exam results, that exam video could be requested by BPI. The Proctor and/or Test Center will be required to produce the exam video delivered to BPI within five business days of the request, via traceable means (e.g. FedEx, UPS).

BPI does require the submission of the first three videoed field exam sessions administered by each field proctor. The subsequent online exam video to be requested and submitted for QA purposes will be based on random date ranges. Additional video submission may be required when exam results need verification. The Proctor and/or Test Center will be required to produce the exam video delivered to BPI within five business days of the request, via traceable means (e.g. FedEx, UPS).

All videos submitted must be in one of the following acceptable formats: AVI, WMV, MPEG/MPG, or MOV. Due to file sizes and the ability to transfer files in a cost-effective manner, please use the lowest resolution setting available on your recording equipment. Do not use your cell phone for video of exams. Raw video is to be submitted. No movie/title/chapter editing is to be submitted.

USB drives or SD cards are the preferred media as they have proven to be low cost, especially when bought in bulk. Exams may also be burned to a DVD or BluRay. Reusable external storage devices, (Flash Drive, SD cards) will not be returned and will become permanent property of BPI.

All video submissions must be clearly marked with the date of the exam, proctor name and candidate name(s):

- Any diagnostic testing must be captured in a way sufficient to read the output of any electronic equipment (e.g. need to see manometer readings, CO numbers, etc.)
- Ensure that all aspects (each line item) on the field performance sheet are captured

Please make sure to adjust the camera resolution settings prior to recording at exam time

10. Candidate Photographs

Proctors must take a digital photo of each candidate prior to beginning an exam. All candidate photos must be submitted electronically to BPI within 48 hours and must be formatted as a JPEG file, with the candidate's name clearly marked. For example, use 'John Smith.jpg' as the filename. Photos may be uploaded via the testing system before selecting a candidate's online or field exam. Candidates are permitted to have reference materials of their choice available during the field exam. Proctors will need to notify candidates that if any notes or marks are made on the reference materials, the proctor will need to collect and destroy those materials.

Proctors will ensure the exam process is understood by each candidate and will walk around the test site with the candidate while the exam is being performed. Proctors will take notes concerning the test site conditions, as they evaluate the candidate's performance.

12. Time Limits

Proctors will:

- Ensure the exam time limits are adhered to

If candidate(s) agree(s), proctors may alert at 45-, 30- & 15-minute intervals of exam time remaining.

Time limits will not include the portion of the exam period dedicated to registration and/or taking photos of candidates.

If a candidate has not completed an online exam within the allotted time limit, the proctor must inform the candidate the session is over and close out the online exam session by selecting 'Marked for Review' from the left side menu. This will bring you to the end of the exam. The candidate will need to verify the last three statements and then select the 'Finish & Grade' button.

If a candidate does not complete the field exam tasks within the time limits, the proctor must inform the candidate the session is over and score the field evaluation form by marking any remaining tasks as '0'. Blank scores will not be accepted. Make notes in the section below each line item when a score of '0' has been indicated or an 'N/A' has been marked. Use the extra note section at the end of the score form for additional comments; confirm and submit your exam score sheet.

Appendix C – BPI Video Review of Test Center In-House Staff Exam(s)

Test Centers that have staff or potential certification candidates with which they have a contractual relationship or have any potential candidate where a perceived conflict of interest could exist, whether for new certification(s) or renewal of current certifications, are able to submit the candidate's name(s) to BPI as notice of the session to take place, and move forward with the administration of the exam(s). 100% of the video with audio of these sessions is required to be submitted to BPI for review and there is a fee to cover BPI's review of these videos. All exam policy does apply, including the proctor not having trained the potential candidate within the last two years in the exam designation. - Payment over the phone with a credit card – contact QualityAssurance@bpi.org or (877) 274-1274, extension 292

Appendix J – Candidates Requesting Special Accommodations

In conformance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), arrangements for persons with disabilities will be provided upon request. Required documentation must be submitted to BPI and/or a BPI Test Center no later than four weeks prior to a scheduled test date.

The Americans with Disabilities (ADA) Act provides comprehensive civil rights protection for qualified individuals with disabilities.

An individual with a disability is a person who:

- has a physical impairment or a mental impairment that substantially limits a major life activity
- has a record of such impairment, or
- is regarded as having such an impairment.

The ADA does not specifically name all of the impairments that are covered. If a candidate has a disability, they have the right to inquire and receive information about testing accommodations. “Testing Accommodation” means an adjustment to or modification of the standard testing conditions that eases the impact of the applicant’s disability on the examination process without altering the nature of the exam.

If an applicant is claiming a disability that requires testing accommodations, the applicant must properly complete the Special Testing Accommodation form. The burden of proof is on the applicant to establish the existence of a disability protected by the Americans with Disabilities Act, as well as to establish the need for testing accommodations. Each application is evaluated on a case-by-case basis.

Qualified individuals with disabilities are required to request accommodation every time they plan to take the examination unless the disability is shown to be lifelong. In cases where it is not considered lifelong, the new request for accommodation will be evaluated to determine if the disability is a current impediment to the candidate. It is in the candidate’s best interest to provide recent and appropriate documentation, which clearly defines the extent and impact of the impairment(s) upon current levels of academic and physical functioning.

Request for accommodation and appropriate supporting documentation, which when completed, should provide evidence of a substantial limitation to physical or academic functioning.

Clinical evaluations and examinations of the candidate that have resulted in a diagnosis of a physical or mental impairment must have been performed by a licensed/certified or otherwise qualified professional with credentials appropriate to diagnose a candidate’s disability consistent with the provisions of the ADA. Details about the professional’s area of specialization and professional credentials must be provided.

Documentation must be submitted on official letterhead from a licensed or qualified professional who examined the candidate and diagnosed a physical or mental impairment. Depending on the disability and online evaluation, documentation may include a letter from a physician or a detailed report.

Document must be no more than three years old.

Documentation for all disabilities should describe the extent of the disability and recommended accommodations.

A diagnosis of Attention Deficit Disorder (ADD) or Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD) must be supported by a current (administered within the past three years) comprehensive evaluation and relevant neuropsychological or psycho educational assessment batteries. The report must include documented information that the patient meets criteria for long standing history, impairment, and pervasiveness. The report must include specific diagnosis of ADHD based on the DSM-IV diagnostic criteria.

The candidate must submit the following forms to BPI at least 30 days in advance of the scheduled exam.

- Candidate Application for Special Testing Accommodations
- Provider Application for Special Testing Accommodations
- Clinical evaluation on official letterhead (letter or detailed report)

Once these forms have been reviewed the applicant will receive notification of approval or denial from BPI. If approved, the candidate must bring the approval notice with them to the testing center.

All forms can be located at www.bpi.org.

Appendix K – Language Barrier Testing Accommodations

If a candidate has difficulty in comprehending the language of the test, they have the right to inquire in advance of testing whether any accommodations may be available to them. BPI shall allow the candidate, at his or her expense, to have an interpreter present at either an online or field exam, provided that the interpreter is a bona fide interpreter that is engaged in that profession and that is pre-approved by BPI.

The candidate must submit the following forms to BPI at least 30 days in advance of the scheduled exam.

- Candidate Application for Language Barrier Testing Accommodations

Once these forms have been reviewed the applicant will receive notification of approval or denial from BPI. If approved, the candidate must bring the approval notice with them to the testing center.
