JLC Industries has implemented an initiative to aid Veterans with needs for Employment and Skilled Training. We are offering 5 Scholarships to start, in The Home Performance Industry. These scholarships will be applied to The Building Performance Institute (BPI) Certification for Building Analyst and Envelope Professional. These Certifications are the core Certifications needed to gain employment and start a career in this industry. JLC will assist in getting these veterans placed with Companies in the Home Performance Industry for employment. These scholarships shall be awarded in between January 1, 2022 – December 31st, 2022. Details of awards will be released in the near future.

JLC Industries is a BPI Test Center, Training and Consulting Company that works with Utilities, Government Entities, Accreditation Organizations (BPI), Vendors, Contractors, Suppliers and Multiple Industry Professional Groups. JLC believes in achieving the Next Level of Knowledge which will enrich our client's futures.

Respectfully,
