

Energy Auditor-Building Analyst North East Pennsylvania

Description:

- Perform energy audits, energy education and quality control inspections for individual customers and for utility funded weatherization programs.
- Candidate must have an understanding of building components with a strong technical aptitude (carpentry, electric, plumbing and HVAC).
- Ability to analyze customer's energy usage.
- Capable of communicating effectively with a broad range of customers and co-workers and have good people skills.
- Ability to learn and/or use a variety of diagnostic tools including performing blower door testing, duct leakage testing and combustion safety testing.

- Familiarity with computers for documentation purposes as well as the ability to learn weatherization software programs.
- Attention to details is a priority.
- Estimating and proposal writing for weatherization and insulation services for private customers.
- Physical ability to investigate attics and crawlspaces.
- Willingness to participate in administrative, weatherization installation and warehouse duties when needed.
- Must clear a criminal background check and have a valid driver's license. Paid for extensive driving is required at times in a company vehicle.
- This is a full-time position with regular working hours from 7:00 AM – 5:00 PM Monday through Thursday.
- Starting pay is commensurate with experience with merit raises based on performance.
- Experience and BPI Certification are preferred but training will be available for the right candidate.