

Brower Mechanical has established itself as a leading provider of heating, ventilation, and air conditioning systems (HVAC). We provide an all-encompassing approach to HVAC solutions, from professional installations of premium products to comprehensive service plans, so systems work at their peak efficiency to provide customer comfort at the lowest cost. With more than 40 years of experience in the cooling and heating industry, we have the knowledge and skills to stand firmly behind our work.

Our “Core Values” are what sets us apart from the rest.

“C” Customer Focus

“A” Accountability

“R” Respect

“I” Innovation

“N” Network

“G” Growth

Position Responsibilities

- Perform detailed energy assessments to document existing building conditions and identify opportunities for energy savings.
- Perform blower door, duct leakage tests, carbon monoxide analysis, combustion, and appliance efficiency testing.
- Inspect and evaluate mechanical and electrical building systems.
- Collect and analyze field data related to energy usage and input into modeling software.
- Identify and prioritize potential energy efficiency measures, savings potential, and technologies.
- Prepare energy assessment reports based on analytic findings with detailed specifications and cost savings analysis.

Position Qualifications

- Minimum 1.5 years experience in Building Science related fields such as BPI, HERs, or equivalent.
- Knowledge of energy modeling software
- BPI Building Analyst Certification
- Blower Door Testing, Duct Leakage Testing.
- NGAT Certification and Combustion Analyzation skills
- Effective written and verbal communication skills
- Ability to work independently and make informed decisions
- Ability to stay organized, self-motivated and detail-oriented
- Ability to interact comfortably and appropriately with property owners and managers
- Excellent customer service skills
- Full-time and part-time hours - typical schedule is weekdays 7:00 am to 4:00 pm.
- Opportunities for professional growth and overtime.
- Must be able to pass a drug screen, and background check, and possess a clean driving record to drive company vehicles.