

Energy Auditor Position

Description:

The energy auditor position is responsible of perform a thorough Building Performance Institute (BPI) certified energy audit, creating custom workscope for better home performance and educating homeowners on opportunities and weatherizing solutions to achieve an energy saving and comfortable home. Candidate must be articulate, detail oriented, organized and trustworthy. We are looking for hard working individuals that want to succeed and make a difference for homeowners and for the betterment of all.

Responsibilities:

- Perform BPI certified energy audits and create home energy solutions.
- Meet with homeowners to present, explain worksopes and sign contracts.
- Manage data on spreadsheets and CRM software.

Candidates:

- Must be neat and presentable. Must wear company uniform
- Articulate and communicate
- Strong attention to detail
- Team oriented (Very important)

Prerequisite:

- 2 years in the home performance industry
- Willingness to be educated and tested for BPI Certifications
- Driver's License and vehicle