

New England Conservation Services-Lead Technician/Home Performance Assessor Wallingford, Connecticut

New England Conservation Services (NECS) a leading provider of residential energy conservation services in Connecticut is seeking experienced Home Performance Lead Technicians holding both BPI Analyst and Envelope certifications for our expanding company. Individuals must have a strong work ethic, a desire to promote energy conservation and guide our customers into making choices that contribute to their financial well being and enhanced comfort.

NECS will provides a competitive salary, medical, vacation and 401k.

Primary Responsibilities:

- Conduct home energy assessments
- Lead field crew in the installation of recommended measures
- Perform blower door and duct blaster tests
- Prepare energy assessment reports
- Accurate identification and measurement of insulation
- Educate customers to achieve greater energy savings

Requirements:

- Experience in residential energy conservation, residential construction and enthusiasm for energy conservation
- Current BPI Analyst and Envelope BPI certifications
- Computer proficiency with word and excel
- Prepare reports with laptop/tablet
- Available to work Saturdays
- Ability to lift 35 pounds
- Ability and willingness to work in confined spaces: attics, crawl spaces, etc.
- Clean driving record
- No felony convictions

Preferred:

- Experienced in Connecticut's "Home Energy Solutions" and "Home Energy Solutions Income Eligible" program.
- Certified D.O.E. "Home Energy Score".

Salary and Benefits:

- Salary is commensurate with experience
- 401K
- Health care benefits
- Vacation and holiday

Interested applicants can contact jgreeno@neconserves.com .